O R D E R:

In her representation 1st read above, Smt.A.Satya Santhi, W/o. late A. Anand Kumar, PC1644, has informed that her husband, while working in 5th Bn, APSP Vizianagaram, committed suicide on 15-02-2005 due to some unavoidable circumstances leaving behind two minor children aged about (5) years and (8) months and his aged mother. Subsequently, she applied for compassionate appointment and her request was referred to the District Collector, Vizianagaram, by the Commandant, 5th Bn, APSP Vizianagaram, in the year 2005 itself, but she was not provided employment as the scheme for appointment of dependants of deceased employee who died in harness as provided in G.O.Ms.No.687, General Administration (Ser.A) Department, dated 03-10-1977, was not available to the employees died due to suicide at that time. Referring to instructions issued in Memo. No. 41758/Ser.G/2006-2, General Administration(Ser.G) Department, dated 19-07-2007, wherein a provision is made for providing compassionate appointments to the dependents in suicidal cases with prospective effect, Smt. A.Satya Santhi has requested to provide her compassionate appointment, in relaxation of rules. In the Memo 2nd read above, the Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, has been requested to send a detailed report.

2. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, in the letter 3rd read above, has reported that Sri .Anand Kumar, PC 1644, Vizianagaram, committed suicide with fire arm causing head injury and died on 15-02-2005, while in service. Subsequently, his wife Smt. A. Satya Santhi has submitted a representation with a request to provide suitable employment under compassionate grounds. Her request was not considered by the Commandant, 5th Bn, APSP, Vizianagaram, as the scheme of compassionate appointment to the dependents of deceased Government employee is applicable in normal death cases only and not applicable to the suicidal cases. The Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad, has further informed that orders were issued in Govt.Memo.No.41758/Ser.G/2006-2 General .Administration.(Ser.G) Department, dated19-07-2007, with prospective effect , extending the benefit of compassionate appointment to the dependents of Government employees, who commit suicide while in service.
